MEMORANDUM RE PEARL BAHMER

Formerly in 1922 worked in a music shop in New Brunswick. She then resided with Mrs. Isaac Barton, 228 Neilson Street. Prior to 1922 is said to have been arrested frequently for truancy and delinquency.

Her attorneys at the time of her incarceration in 1922 as an incorrigible minor were William D. Danbury and Paul E. Wing of New Brunswick.

Her brother Henry, otherwise known as "Happy", was in the New Brunswick Workhouse the night of 9/14/22. It is possible that his whereabouts may be traced through the jail records.

On November 15, 1922 it was reported that Pearl was at the House of the Good Shepherd in Newark. It is possible that this place has some record of her and it is quite likely she is under probation, although there is nothing definite on this point. This would require her periodical reports to the probation officer.
